HUGHES HALL PRIZES, 2018

Congratulations to all our prize-winners!

Burnett Prizes

These prizes are provided by an anonymous donor in memory of Elizabeth Mabel Burnett, who overcame many difficulties to give her children the higher education and independence which were denied to her. They are awarded to qualifying students who are not eligible for another college prize.

£200, for Distinction in MASt or First Class in LLM/MCL or in final year BA

- Dionisius Tjhe
- Jef Laga
- Xiyu Zhai
- Lukas Kikuchi
- Niklas Henke
- Tsz Ching Sunny Hor
- Tom Boekestein
- Alexander Ferguson
- Han Wei Sia
- Ziruo Zhang
- Joshua Richman
- Joel Wee
- De-Sheng Joshua Wong
- Karl Steenson
- Sophie Bird

£100, for Merit in MASt or First Class in non-final year BA

- Ross Paterson
- Quentin Changeat
- Sergey Ovchininkov
- Willem Elbers
- Tobby Satyarama
- Choon Luther Yap
- Axel Larsson
- Harriet Stacey
- Kalon Tsang
- Christophoros Tsangarides
- Andrew Koh
- Yidi Wu
- Yi-Peng Khoo

£50, for receiving a faculty/department prize (if not eligible for another college prize)
Charnley Prizes in Law

These prizes of £250 for the highest First Class Honours result in the LLM and final year BA are provided by William Charnley, Hughes Hall Fellow and partner in King & Spalding’s Corporate practice.

Darren Peterson  LLM
Siu Fung Cheung  BA

Godwin–Raffan Prizes in Medicine and Education

These prizes are provided by two Life Fellows of the college to reward students in their own fields of expertise, Ray Godwin in Medicine and John Raffan in Education.

£200, for Distinction in Medicine Part III or in the MPhil in Education

Shadi El Basyuni  Medicine Part III
Bryn Hilton  Medicine Part III

Lowman Prize in Education

This prize of £100 is awarded by Cambridge Assessment to the ‘highest among those training at Hughes Hall to be teachers of English Language and Literature’ (Syndicate minutes, 1995).

Hannah Pagan  PGCE Early Primary

Dr Philip Johnston
Senior Tutor
10 July 2018