Hughes Hall Prizes

Senior Tutor, revised June 2021

Notes
1. Students eligible for more than one college prize will receive the more (or most) substantial one.
2. Hughes Hall is notified directly by faculties and departments of those eligible for the Burnett and the subject prizes, but not of those for the Johnston prizes. Any student who feels they are eligible for the latter should write with relevant evidence to tutorial@hughes.cam.ac.uk

General Prizes

Burnett Prizes for BA and some taught masters

These prizes are provided by an anonymous donor in memory of Elizabeth Mabel Burnett, who overcame many difficulties to give her children the higher education and independence which were denied to her.

£200 for First Class in final year BA
£100 for First Class or Distinction in LLM, MAST, MCL, MEng, MMath, MSci
£50 for First Class in non-final year BA or Merit in MAST
£50 for receiving a departmental or national/international prize

Johnston Prizes for other masters and all doctoral courses

These prizes are provided by college members in honour of Philip Johnston, Senior Tutor 2009-21.

£100 for Distinction in any Masters course not noted above
£50 for receiving a departmental or national/international prize

Subject Prizes

Charnley Prizes in Law

These prizes are provided by William Charnley, Hughes Hall Fellow and partner in King & Spalding’s Corporate practice.

£250 for the highest First Class Law BA finalist of the year
£250 for the highest First Class LLM of the year

Grossman Prize in Economics

This prize is provided by friends of Hughes Hall Neil and Mindy Grossman.

£250 for the highest First Class Economics BA finalist of the year

Kenworthy Prize in Classics

This prize is provided by Senior Member John Kenworthy to encourage the study of Classics.

£200 for First Class, Distinction or equivalent in any relevant examination
Powell Prize in Religious Studies

This prize was provided by Helena Powell, Principal 1902-08, to encourage Religious Studies.

£200 for First Class, Distinction or equivalent in any relevant examination

Lowman Prize in Education

This prize is awarded by Cambridge Assessment to the ‘highest among those training at Hughes Hall to be teachers of English Language and Literature’ (Syndicate minutes, 1995).

£100 for the best PGCE student in English language and literature

Godwin – Raffan Prizes in Medicine and Education

These prizes are provided by Life Fellows Ray Godwin and John Raffan to reward able students in their own fields of expertise, Medicine and Education respectively.

£200 for Distinction in the Bachelor of Medicine Part III or the MPhil in Education

£50 for receiving a Clinical School Prize in Medicine or Faculty Prize in Education in any year

END