

Centre for Social Innovation

Hughes Hall – CJBS Scholarship for MSt in Social Innovation

Hughes Hall and the Cambridge Judge Business School are pleased to offer an award of £10,000 for a student on the MSt in Social Innovation, with £5,000 payable in the first year of study and £5,000 in the second. The award is tenable at Hughes Hall, and the criteria are listed below.

Criteria

- The award is open to applicants for the MSt in Social Innovation who select Hughes Hall as their first choice College.
- The awardee will have a good social innovation business idea or change project within an organisation, which the course will help them to realise. Applicants for the Scholarship will provide a 500-word outline case detailing their business idea or change project.
- Applicants must undertake to play a part in the life of Hughes Hall, through such bodies as the Enterprise Society or by attendance at events in Cambridge or elsewhere.

Publicity

Upon receiving the award, the successful awardee undertakes to:

- Appear in articles in the Hughes magazine, Centre for Social Innovation and online publicising the course and their outline proposal
- Appear in scholarship publicity material (print and online), for Hughes Hall and the Centre for Social Innovation

Application

- Applicants must complete the Hughes Hall Scholarship Application Form and submit by the date given at Scholarships and bursaries - Hughes Hall \(cam.ac.uk\).
- Applicants must ALSO complete and submit the MSt application form as indicated at www.jbs.cam.ac.uk/mstsocialinnovation. In this application they must list Hughes Hall as their first choice College.

Selection

- The awarding bodies reserve the right to request further information on an applicant's proposal, evidence of financial need, or other matters.
- Shortlisted applicants may be invited for interview, in person or by skype.